

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF COUNCIL MEMBER I. DANEEK MILLER

**MEDIA ADVISORY****

Gregory Rose, Office of Councilman I. Daneek Miller
grose@council.nyc.gov
212-788-7084

Elected officials, Advocates, To Speak Out Against Congestion Pricing and Call for Better Transportation Options for Queens Residents

On Monday, June 13th at 10:00am, at the St. Albans LIRR Station, elected officials and advocates from across the borough will be speaking out against the proposed congestion pricing plan proposed in Albany.

They will also be offering alternatives to the plan that ensures Queens residents have fair ways to travel across the borough that will reduce travel times, while also increasing revenue for the Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

What: Elected Officials, Advocates, Speak Out Against Congestion Pricing

When: Monday, June 13th 10:00am

Where: Linden Boulevard and 180th Street (the St. Albans LIRR station)

###

Gregory H. Rose
Director of Communications & Legislative Affairs
Office of Councilman I. Daneek Miller
grose@council.nyc.gov
City Hall Office: 212-788-7084